Where an employee suspects that he or she is, or may potentially be, in conflict with any of the provisions of the Code, the employee must disclose the conflict or potential conflict in writing, to council.

The disclosure should include a detailed description of the conflict or potential conflict.

Where a disclosure is made, the matter will be treated seriously, and in confidence. The supervisor (or council) must review the disclosure within ten (10) days, from the date the disclosure is made, and determine an appropriate course of action to address the actual or potential conflict.
